LEWIS M. GRIST.

For the Promotion of the Political, Social, Agricultural and Commercial Interests of the South. An Independent Family Relospaper:

82 PER YEAR, IN ADVANCE

VOLUME 8

· YORKVILLE, SOUTH CAROLINA, THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 7, 1862.

The Workville Enquirer. ISSUED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING,

Two Bollars a year, in Advance.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Personal Communications, when admiss

Original Loctry.

On the Death of the Poet-Soldier, William Washington East.

BY MRS. MARTIN-(DOLUMBIA, S. C.) Thou hast gone to thy rest, young and brave, Lie, lightly, the surf on thy breast! Fresh flowers ever bloom on thy grave, Who erst, "to the good brought the best

Por rare, were thy gifts, good and true, The muses had crown I thy young brow Alas! that the cypress and yew

Gentle spirit, so gifted and brave, So young, yet whose sword and whose per Have carv'd for bimself, on his grave, A name, that shall live among men. And, yet, at the grave, we must weep

Albeit, that, life-giving faith
Tells us there, some do well, who do sleep And, that, dying, is not all of death. No! no! for he lives, ever lives, The consign'd to death's gloomy abode, Yet, the blessed assurance faith gives

That, beyond, there is glory and God.

War Correspondence of the Charleston Cour

this regiment and the brigade to which it is attached have done some of the most gallant fighting that has taken place during ground the next morning, and counted the tide of the charge rolled on and when the counter of the charge rolled on and when the charge rolled on the right of the charge rolled on and when the charge rolled on the right of the charge rolled on and when the charge rolled on the right of the d'armee of General Longstreet, and consequently held in reserve until a critical molate on the afternoon on Friday, say two or three hours after the commencement of the battle. The point at which they entered was upon the extreme right of our lines, through the head, and four of the color strike a blow, and put them in utter rout; Rail Road, which he did without returna right angle to the river. The formidable breastworks of the enemy upon Boatswain's Creek, described in a previous letter, had been carried by other troops, and the Brigging and accordingly marched without obstrucade accordingly marched without obstrucwhich immediately succeeded the ascent.-Is need not detail the various haltings, flank movements, and temporary advances made by the command preparatory to engaging the enemy, but come at once to a description of the sanguinary eposide which constitutes the chief exploit of the regiments ever, Whiting had disappeared, his troops probably having pushed rapidly forward.

Livision. On arriving at the spot, however, Whiting had disappeared, his troops the enemy's pickets, and find out his position, and "feel" his strength. This was At this juncture Col. Jenkins discovered done, but it was not until about three o'- was Col. Simmons, an old Mexican soldier. of the Palmetto's. We had now fairly were shot down. The flag itself was a body of the enemy about a quarter of a clock in the afternoon when the brigade got He was mortally wounded, but took occamile distant, and advancing to within hail- fairly into battle. During the interim our sion to present to the Lieutenant who found human task was evidently about to be comand all the state of the state ing distance with his line of battle present. troops had been subject to a terrible can. him, and by whom he was kindly cared for, menced, although the arrangement of the it was fully demonstrated in this battle that Lieut. Col. Jackson, did the same, and resting upon the left of the Palmettos. It manding the New Market road. Finally Jenkins.

The Private South Call Jackson, did the same, and resting upon the left of the Palmettos. It manding the New Market road. Finally Jenkins.

The Private South Call Jackson, did the same, and carries out this city from Baltimore with $75,000 in has accordingly made the suggestion, that has accordingly made the suggestion accordingly ma was now reported to Col. Jenkins that there becoming so destructive in its volleys, the left advanced, and oblique hereafter Colonels and subordinate officers but press on "and then dropped dead.— purposes."

In the course of his conversation, Col. formed with the left advanced, and oblique hereafter Colonels and subordinate officers but press on "and then dropped dead.— purposes." Upon receipt of this intelligence Col. Jack- it. ments, and said, "Sir, if you are ready to surrender order your men to lay down their mand is given: "shoot the horses!"

Inat portion of it under the command of the Yankee captains, and which has continued on the surrender order your men to lay down their mand is given: "shoot the horses!"

Inat portion of it under the command of the Yankee captains and sold. General D. H. Hill—so far, in fact, that it was, many were admitted through our become the eternal custodian of your names. The people of Maryland, he represents, a few weeks ago, being hungry and feeling. Some idea of the bloody character of the was supposed that they were the enemy, As it was, many were admitted through our become the eternal custodian of your names. The people of Maryland, he represents, a few weeks ago, being hungry and feeling. The people of Maryland is given: "shoot the horses!"

surremuci office your men to may down their arms and arms." The reply was: "We have no or- A fringe of fire leaps from the glittering battle and the tornado of fire through which and a fire opened upon them from our own lines who had lain down their arms and and glory, every wave that ripples by its are as true as steel, and only kept in subjutant and appetite for goose, fastened a fish hook ders to surrender, and will fight it out." muzzles of our rifles, and when the pall of our troops passed, may be had from the artillery. The Colonel then told him he would see him safely back to the lines, and returned himself. Scarcely had the little emblem of sacrifice. The object of the Federals is amity disappeared behind the enemy's frustrated, and the battery is abandoned. Four whose persons or clothing did not bear the friends in the rear, or rather, to the amity disappeared bening the enemy's ranks when the command rang along our line, "Ready! aim! fire!"

The execution was terrible. The quick

The soldier at the other end of the ground. The fifth bearer was likewise the marks of a bullet. The flag was struck in patched a messenger to Gen. Hill, to inshort, but he held fast to the flag refusing to persons or clothing and not bear the command. The fifth bearer was likewise the ground. The fifth bearer was likewise the ground. The flag was struck in patched a messenger to Gen. Hill, to inshort, but he held fast to the flag refusing to ped. It is the motto of the brave Jenkins promptly dishirty times, and the colors of the Palmethistones for the enemy's counter the triends in the rear, or rather, to the ground. The fifth bearer was likewise the ground. The fifth bearer was likewise the ground. The flag was struck in patched a messenger to Gen. Hill, to inshort, but he held fast to the flag refusing to patched a messenger to Gen. Hill, to inshort, but he held fast to the flag refusing to patched a messenger to Gen. Hill, to inshort, but he held fast to the flag refusing to patched a messenger to Gen. Hill, to inshort, but he river, on both sides daily.

One hundred Yankee prisoners, of Pope's took to his heels, the ground. The fifth bearer was likewise the marks of a bullet. The soldier at the other end of the cord right; but Colonel Jenkins promptly dishered the country of the ground. The fifth bearer was likewise the marks of a bullet. The ground of the gro eye of our Colonel saw his advantage, and same ground, and they are moving steadily times. The company of Captain Kilpat- and request, for the present at least, that in the head and he fell dead. secured the start of the Yankees by four forward. Suddenly, there open fresh bator five seconds. In the graphic language teries on the extreme left of this line from man left untouched; two other companies juncture, it was reported that a heavy color nive seconds. In the graphic language terms on the extreme left of this line from man left unconductive, two other companies juncture, it was reported that a neavy collines. Colonel, said a boy of fifteen; they can sure, as it is his duty, in forwarding the came upon them, when they field in confu-knew it to be so cross before.

wounded in the Palmetto Sharp-shooters, and 20 killed and fifty air replaced and fifty air was assigned to the command of a division, and that, consequently the command of the brigade devolved upon Colonel Jenkins.

son wheeled his regiment so as to face the The ground was irregular, undulating liant exploits which he had ever known. son wheeled his regiment so as to lace the and broken, but the men preserved their He describes our fire as having been mur an obstinate resistance, and were supported ment. regiment, as was immediately apparent by line under the pittiless pelting of the iron derous, and our troops as being irresistible, by two pieces of artillery, but our men Among the incidents I have heard relaregiment, as was immediately apparent by rain like veterans, until having passed further adding that his only satisfaction loaded without pausing as they advanced, ted is one concerning the company of Capt. their blue uniforms, deployed from the through a dense ravine, they stood face to was that he had been "taken a prisoner by and gave no opportunity for the frequently Colclough. With only forty-seven men, he wood and drew up in Deautiful line not and gave up opportunity for the frequently continued and gave up opportunity for the frequently for the fre more than seventy-five yards distant, and batteries only two hundred yards away, and only brave men know how." Gen. Long-fered greatly, but the Yankees suffered one hundred and thirty-three privates, with within support of two other rederal regiments. They did not seem to act as if in heavy masses of troops concealed behind street also remarked, as a tribute to the galmore and soon gave back in confusion. — Enfield rifles in their hands. Some one ments. They did not seem to act as it in act of the presence of an enemy, however, and entrenchments to support them. And now lantry of South Carolinians, that he had From this time until night our onward joking the Yankee officers about the dis the presence of an enemy, nowever, and the storm is terrible. The Federal line found our dead farther in the advance than movement was steady, confident, continu- crepancy of numbers, the latter replied, he ing was the fact that the Yankees persistout head and white be had the dead of any other regiment upous and successful. Three, four, five times "didn't care so much about being taken a To the Troops defeading Vicksburg:
out a best their field and collections are successful. Three, four, five times out of the troops defeading vicksburg: ently kept their flag furled, and called to smoke. Grape, canister, shell, round shot on the field. ently kept their flag furied, and called to show who we were—our battle flag and minnie bullets, sweep the plain like a Our loss was 44 killed and 210 wounded best to break our front, but just as often darned contemptible little squad, was a stances which surround you have won the politicians and contractors were very noisy names to things."

Unfurl your flag!" At this moment they raised a white flag; and an officer appearonium your mag: At this moment mey read and several cargoes had a grapeshot raised a white flag; and an officer appear.

The South Carolinans were now more than wild Pategonians.

The South Carolinans were now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians.

Altogether we captured about two hundless are now more than wild Pategonians. ed bearing it towards our lines. Col. J. watchful eye of Jenkins, however, detects having penetrated his lungs. After the a mile in advance of our army, or rather deed and fifty prisoners. Had we more time fail. When he is master of the great river was currently reported, had been taken to A Confederate soldier on his way dred and fifty prisoners. Had we more time fail. When he is master of the great river was currently reported, had been taken to A Confederate soldier on his way dred and fifty prisoners. Had we more time fail. When he is master of the great river was currently reported, had been taken to A Confederate soldier on his way dred and fifty prisoners. Under the command of the prisoners are reported about two nun-marks and sold to the prisoners. The will be a mile in advance of our army, or rather a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather the mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our army, or rather the a mile in advance of our your State.

I am permitted, on this occasion, to congrate the gratulate you and the State, whose honor and reputation you have so well maintained, and a line the press on towards the rear of the lines, whose honor and reputation you have so well maintained, they reel to and fro like a brave ship bat.

I am permitted, on this occasion, to conduct the skirmishers were called in and a line the advantages of the old tern King, and have overrun three fourths the skirmishers were called in and a line the skirmishers were called in an on the possession of these handsome colors, tling with a gale, whose sails are gone and outwarks broken to pieces, but still impelled by unquenchable energy holds on its destroy by unquenchable energy holds on its destroy. Even the mangled men upon the ground, bleeding and agonizing with won as they were on the evening of the bulwarks broken to pieces, but still impelled memorable 27th of June by the conspicu- by unquenchable energy holds on its desons courage and devotion exhibited by your parate way. Even the mangled men upon The regiment, which wears emblazoned pain, utter their feeble words of encouron its banners "Williamsburg" and "Sev- agement-"Go on boys, don't mind us en Pines" and will have indellibly stamped but take care of the old flag." The stern thereon the record of the bloody actions of pale faces of the few survivors are turned the 27th and 80th of June, cannot gain towards the Colonel commanding to read if quake. Better trust to luck than legs. its brilliant achievements.

These names alone justly entitle it to the confidence and pride of the country and of that Palmetto State whose name it has compressed and determined for the country and of that Palmetto State whose name it has compressed and determined for the country and of the count that Palmetto State whose name it has proudly and irreproachably borne.

That is enough, and with teeth set, tips the battle of Seven Pines, where by the until they reached the crest of a hill.—

Woods and swamp were immediately in brigades. Camp your troops in that field, States be developed, whereby the respect front, and the Federals were less than a constant of the property o Your obedient servant,
G. M. SORREL.

To Colonel M. Jenkins, Commanding

Palmetto Sharp-shooters.

Oot other nations would be inspired and our Laucaster Leager terers to a gentlemed of themselves a hundred yards distant. Fire was opened for your ammunition."

Still another tribute is paid by the pen future peace be secured. If these things forward. They know not whether it be to a few forward. They know not whether it be to a few forward. They know not whether it be to a few forward. They know not whether it be to a few future peace be secured. If these things forward are so, what an inestimable bissing, all and refused to advance his figures. His was never favored before. Fully our equals thought to make an assault, and advanced the following parameters.

No wonder that terms fill these things for themselves a hundred yards distant. Fire was opened future peace be secured. If these things future peace be secured. If these things for the families of the enemy. In the account of the battle of soldiers with flour at $4.50 per audited.

Our men being protected. The Federals of the enemy were here favored as army though draped in sorrow and suffering, will be to the Confidence of the following parameters. They was never favored before. Fully our equals the following parameters.

Our men being protected. The Federals of the enemy. In the account of the battle of soldiers with flour at $4.50 per audited; are so, what an inestimable bisseng, all are so, what an inestimable bisseng, all are so, what an inestimable bisseng, all are so, what are inear so, they close up the gaping ranks and move gies of valor," and gained for themselves a hundred yards distant. Fire was opened, sir, and send for your ammunition." Palmetto Sharp shooters.

Palmetto Sharp shooters.

The morning after the battle in which these flags were taken, the colonel and surviving officers of the regiment voluntarily country for Col. Jankins and delivered them.

The brigade being attached to the corps pieces. Our own losses during this engage. flying from the place, with their dead and tion en echelon.

and final charge was one of the most bril. manner the attack was resumed.

escaped the havor, but along the ground occupied by the regiments which but a month before stood so bold and upright were strewn the dead and dying. It was as commands and orasn on through the left nank and crasn on through the left, was a force sumction in general orders.

Were killed and wounded in elect, was a force sumction in general orders.

It is his oride to be your commander.

The steamer Arkansas is immortal, and fifteen bullet holes through it. His sword, enemy to concentrate would have resulted the mission.

The steamer Arkansas is immortal, and fifteen bullet holes through it. His sword, enemy to concentrate would have resulted the mission.

Another incident is related of a man above his praise—she commands the admittent tor the sum of the left, was a force sumction in general orders.

The steamer Arkansas is immortal, and fifteen bullet holes through it. His sword, enemy to concentrate would have resulted the mission.

Another incident is related of a man above his praise—she commands the admit the left nank and crasn on through the left, was a force sumction in the left, was a force sumction in general orders.

The steamer Arkansas is immortal, and fifteen bullet holes through the mission.

The steamer Arkansas is immortal, and fifteen bullet holes through the mission.

The steamer Arkansas is immortal, and the left, was a force sumction in the left ment before stood so bold and upright were time. The sallen "thug" of the grape fifteen bullet holes through it. His sword, enemy to concentrate would have resulted the mission.

orably wounded.

ferred to, one only has escaped. The fact which were successfully withdrawn.

viving efficers of the regiment voluntarily ing through the valley of death. A spectral solves up as prisoners of war, assigning as a reason for so doing, that we had either the force of the hill, and from this period a least on the sale and solves on the sale and solves of the moments, and solves on the sale and solves of the institution of African slavery for the institution of African slavery for the sale and solves of the institution of the sale and solves of the institution of African slavery for the sale and solves of the sale and sol quently held in reserve until a critical mo-ment, did not get fairly into the fight antil and 20 killed and fifty six, rank and file, pursuit, and it was on the rising ground at genuity could add to the natural obstacles wounded in the 5th, Lieut. Col. Jackson this point that Colonel Jenkins saw a few of the country, covered by batteries of ar-The flag of the latter regiment was struck in three places. The color bearer was shot in the color bearer wa Jenkins' regiment, with the exception of guards either killed or wounded. Lieut. but the little command had already lost ing fire. Col Bratton's Sixth South Car-He was in the thickest of the fire, standing sharp shooters alone had but 175 left.— Georgia Regiment on the right of the Sixth.

There is at a point some eighteen miles northeast of mile.

The fifth South Carolina Regiment had but 175 left.— Georgia Regiment on the right of the Sixth. ed the disastrous fight of the day following unavoidably passed from our hands. Two thousand more men would have swept that Federal horde into the James, or captured a majority of its treops. Our part in the sand through the first gamp-of the enemy. ade accordingly marched without obstruc-tion upon the broad plateau of the hills was shattered, and he was compelled to unavoidably passed from our hands. Two ly after an advance being ordered, the Fed-I omitted to state in the proper place, Federal horde into the James, or captured ed the first abattis, without much difficulty, battle here ceased.

On arriving at the entrenchments above alluded to, and the battery which had been and more formidable abattis, from behind discharge of the Palmetto disc that Brigadier General D. H. Anderson, a majority of its troops. Our part in the and through the first gamp-of the enemy. THE BATTLE OF FRAZER'S FARM

The next fight in which the brigade was

The next fight in which the brigade was shown in the battery which nad nore formidable abatts, from behind shard road to travel in the vicinity of disabled, capt. Kilpatrick, of the Palmetto which the Federals maintained a severe who were most in Memphis. They loose their yellow boys the casualties marryrs whose blood has been "drunk by by blood shed by those who were most in Memphis. They loose their yellow boys the earth" as a sacrement in the holy cause timately associated with us by the ties of the earth" as a sacrement in the holy cause timately associated with us by the ties of the earth" as a sacrement in the holy cause timately associated with us by the ties of the earth and control of the function of the final road to travel" in the vicinity of disabled, Capt. Kilpatrick, of the Palmetto which the Federals maintained as severe which the road to travel" in the vicinity of disabled, Capt. Kilpatrick, of the Palmetto which the Federals maintained as severe which the road to the casualties marryrs whose blood has been "drunk by by blood shed by those who were most in Memphis. They loose their yellow boys the earth and the casualties marryrs whose blood has been "drunk by by blood shed by those who were most in the vicinity of the palmetry of After naving been exposed to a severe engaged was on monday, in the vicinity of our regiment, turned the guns upon the creeping on step by step, the obstruction when the design of shells for several minutes, and the Frazer's Farm, and here it bore a most concern, and handsomely accelerated their was passed. It being found that the Geor-five hours, and driven him from seven different forms and the first of shells for several minutes, and the first of shells for severa men being thoroughly rested, the regiments spicuous part, being in the advance all day. "change of base." This is the third batmoved forward to the support of Whiting's Early in the morning, General Longstreet tery which has been captured by the brig-nature and art had disappeared, the order ed. In two of Colonel Jenkins' color com-Division. On arriving at the spot, how had sent orders to Col. Jenkins to drive in ade commencing with the fight at Williams of Col. Jenkins to the Sixth was that that panies, forty out of eighty men were killed did heavy Federal reinforcements do their prisoner, but to have it done by such a Your conduct thus far under the circumus to know who we were—our pattie hag all the while. Col. Jackson, ad-torrid simoon, smiting with the resistless in Col. Jenkins' regiment, (Palmetto Sharp were they discomfitted and compelled to nough to make a man mad." He suggest admiration of your countrymen. Cool and and active, and insisted that the rebels can in Col. Jenkins' regiment, (Palmetto Sharp were they discomfitted and compelled to nough to make a man mad." nying an the white. On sackson, and the self-possessed under the concentrated fire and must be crushed out. Gold, our infor same debate, relieved his conscience by the vancing a few paces, hallooed to them to fury of a destroying angel wherever Shooters,) out of 375 taken into the field; fall back before our well directed fire.—ed thereupon that we should return them self-possessed under the concentrated fire vancing a new paces, namous to them for the papers at 19 following confession, and by an appropriate ground their arms, when, if my memory they strike. Our regiments begin to crum- 26 killed and 100 wounded in the Second Thus for more than a mile and a half was ground their arms, when, it my memory and and rest." ble, yet not a man falters. But one idea Regiment of Rifles, Col. John V. Moore; our progress marked with the dead and wouldn't be fair" was the reply, but I'll tar boats, you have given assurances that and 20 per cent. premium, but in ordinary animadversion: "It seems", said he, "as serves me correctly, they came to a view.

At the same time Col. J. instructed our appears to prevail, and that is that right or and 11 killed and 73 wounded in the 5th wounded of both friend and foe. We had At the same time Coi. J. instructed our product of the Same time Coi. J. instructed our product of the same time Coi. J. instr med to commence ming it the landers of the slightest demonstration of attack. ry and into the very teeth of its fiery jaws. long no less than a dozen or twenty regiments, dred and thirty fellers the best off hand cannon, nor the noisy threatening of bomb. There were but few soldiers at Washingmade the singulest demonstration of actaca. The state of the mortally wounded in the 5th was Major whipped all, and driven them across the licking at fisticuff you ever read about.— shells. Such exhibitions of fury serve but ton, apparently only sufficient to garrison truth not for truth's own sake, but for the

to have melted away. Here and there a and a position which enables the enemy to Jenkins is himself a curiosity as an illus barg road. Here was another dilemma. — fight better than I can, and if you want names of the distinguished among you to soon back to the river, leaving arms and ev-rably' wounded.

An officer informs me that he has noticed also any troops who might be rallied in the A delieste and yet deserved tribute was were troops in the woods calling upon us. South Carolinians went forward to silence Simmons observed, that our entire advance ly facing the Williamsburg road. In this shall not enter an engagement mounted.— The injury to flags is a pretty good evidence and if it be their fate to fall as their com-The enemy new heavily reinforced, made of the correctness of the Presidential judg-

Coi. Jenkins also called out to them in a we are already advancing. The reder-the mortally wounded in the both was blajor whipped all, and driven them across the licking at usticun you ever read about.— shells. Such exhibitions of tury serve but ton, apparently only summer ton, app into you, whether you are friends or foes. lanche rolling towards him. He knows as gallant an officer and noble a gentleman to cover" in the woods on the right of the THREE COPIES, 35 28; 10 COPIES ment was so badly cut up, and maintained of the day was separated from the a fire for about ten rounds, when we advanced, put them to rout, and captured large numbers of prisoners, including the likewise pouring in a terribly daugling portion; his horse shot twice, and arge numbers of prisoners, including the range, are likewise pouring in a terribly dangling portion; his horse shot twice, and sent for. Meanwhile, he ordered two or hundred yards distant from the enemy, are likewise pouring in a terribly dangling portion; his horse shot twice, and sent for. Meanwhile, he ordered two or hundred yards distant from the enemy, are likewise pouring in a terribly dangling portion; his horse shot twice, and sent for. Meanwhile, he ordered two or hundred yards distant from the enemy, destructive fusilade; but it is nothing combinated in the providence to return.

The former of these Col. Jenkins has pared with the awful showers of iron that The former of these Col. Jenkins has stated for South Carolina to day, to present to the State Authorities. The follows on mercieslay through our ranks from sent to the State Authorities. The follows on mercieslay through our tanks from the Assistant Adjutant-sent to the State Authorities. The follows on mercieslay through our tanks from the Assistant Adjutant-sent to the State Authorities. The follows on mercieslay through our tanks from the Assistant Adjutant-sent to the State Authorities. The follows on the but to press on towards the rear of the fly too thick." "Go back, sir, and don't ment having come up as a reinforcement, who was shot while carrying orders, when ily, by concessions which would in no way King, Eastern King, Southern King, Wes-boys following the routed Yankees as they and the rifle pits, and stormed both. In the have been appreciated. was ours. The eneers of our victorious and the rifle pits, and stormed both. In the boys following the routed Yankees as they scattered in every direction for more than a scattered in every direction for more than a two of Spratt's guus, because they could the Confederate States together. There is at a point some eighteen miles northeast of

"In Heaven a bome with the brave and blessed,
And for their soul's sustaining,
The apocaltytic eyes of Christ—
And nothing on earth remaining,
But a handful of dust in the land of their choice,
A page in sone and accord But a handful of quee in the A name in song and story,
And Fame to show with her brazen voice,
Died on the right of glory!"
PERSONNE.

Address of General Van Dorn. HEADQ'RS DISTRICT OF THE MISS., VICKSBURG, July 18, 1862.

clustre of men were standing, who had enfilled the entire command. Balls strike tration of the doctrine of "special Provi- Is those two masses of troops, in front and the prisoners taken to the rear I'll take em the general commanding the department, erything else behind them. A number escaped the havoc, but along the ground the left flank and crash on through the dence." Strapped to the back of his sad-

From the Charleston Mercury

of this, that out of the six men above re- two caissons on the Williamsburg road, rear and replenish his exhausted cartridge complish this end, the war in which we are handers, and with fire and truffe desclate boxes. "No," said General Hill, in the engaged was absolutely necessary. By no the country. It is usual for them to kill is significant enough to make every individual of this stamp shake like an earthquake. Better trust to luck than legs.

The enemy were now heard coming with a cheer, and an officer reported that they quake. Better trust to luck than legs.

The BATTLE OF SEVEN PINES.

The individual of the succession with the people of the South the old people and the going children, and stern manner which marks his address, other means could the people of the South the old people and the going children, and a cheer, and an officer reported that they were on the double quick. Then we'll second afterwards, with his face lit up by a characteristics of the people of the North were on the double quick," said Jenselle and the double quick, said Jenselle and the double quick, said Jenselle and the double quick, said Jenselle and the succession of the people of the North the press into their service the middle aged of the North the press into their servic of other nations would be inspired and our Laucaster Ledger refers to a gent pounding away with all their might. The there was the old steady movement forward already opened, and new also the four rebel with them with four millions of slaves on it to be his duty as a go July 23d, 1862.

I propose in the present letter to give a brief narrative of the achievements of the Palmetto Sharp-shooters in the recent set of battles at the gates of Bothles at the gates of Bothles at the gates of Richmond.

Before I have finished it will be seen that attached have done some of the most of the same of the most of the same of the within a few paces, forty of their dead.— the works were reached, it was only to find gonal to the Williamsburg road, or what is pieces. Our own losses during this engage. The pieces of the pieces o Between these various positions was evecing, and it was not long before a portion above the smoke their white battle flag flut. to be a civilized people. But for this war, of the Federal lines were observed to be in tered proudly out and showed how fast the true relation of the slave to the master

> The results of the glorious achievement more handful. The living will become the to produce a stronger affection for States tion that if they were caught engaged in the stability of our Confederacy. War has CONFIDENCE IN CONFEDERATE BONDS. produced it. Indiana, Illinois and Ohio _In the darkest hour of our struggle for Those who have gone before us, have died animated by one thought. That thought was heroically illustrated by Capt. Carpenter, of the Palmetto Sharp-shooters, tween the people of these States is supplandire oir cumstances they have maintained their who was killed at the head of his Company, ted by alienation—interest, by hate; and a devotion to the interests of the South, and and almost under the shadow of the color reconstruction of a union between them, illustrated the confidence in our ultimate

> A citizen of Savannah, who has been a prisoner in the enemy's country since Feb- is one of the truest indications of the senruary last, arrived home yesterday, via Baltiment of the people, as well as the confitimore, Washington and Richmond. He dence they feel of final recognition and incomplains of much ill-treatment while a dependence of the Confederacy. prisoner; no clothing was allowed him except blankets, the food was the worst kind. and his place of confinement was most un-

> North about the prospect of a draft, and practised by his Government, of "trying to the lower classes, as a general rule, are op- deceive the people, by calling a detest a posed to a continuance of the war. The strategic movement, and by giving false last. Two Yankee regiments crossed the fraid of it, exclaimed, "Don't ran, it won't

Ferry, where they left the boats and prowithin a few miles of the bridge, but we lost among the creeks and were compelled

Cotton Speculators Frustrated

heard of other instances where smaller amounts have been similarly invested. This Richmond Dispatch.

THE POLICY OF LYING .- In a late debate in the Yankee Senate, Mr. Fessenden. There was considerable excitementat the of Maine, warmly denounced the habit names to things."
Mr. Wilson, of Massachusetts, in the

These Senators urge the observance of had from the late opened upon them from our own shores will crimson with your blood, and gation by Federal bayonets.

It was not a pleasant situation, to be un
As an evidence of the spirit of the men, every hill that looks down upon it will be started for our rear.

As an evidence of the spirit of the men, every hill that looks down upon it will be started for our rear.

As an evidence of the spirit of the men, every hill that looks down upon it will be started for our rear.